MAINTENANCE ENFORCEMENT ISSUES:

The Maintenance Enforcement Office registers support orders, records & monitors payments & automatically takes enforcement action if payments are missed or late. We recommend that you register your order with the MEO. If you receive Social Assistance & are granted a support order by the Court, you must register your order with the MEO.

Do you wish to register your order with The Maintenance Enforcement Office?

CONSENT TO DIVULGE INFORMATION:

It is important that you sign the attached Authorization in front of a witness.

OTHER:

You must provide confirmation of your income. Provide copies of:

- a) six of your most recent pay stubs, Employment Insurance cheques, etc. indicating income earned year to date;
- b) your six most recent income slips from the Department of Social Services; and
- c) if you are a student, your student loan documents.

You must obtain & attach income tax summaries for the past three years. These summaries can be obtained from Revenue Canada. Call 1-800-959-8281 or 975-4595 for more information. Alternatively, you must provide this office with copies of:

- a) every personal income tax return filed for the 3 most recent years, together with all material filed with the return;
- b) Income Tax Summaries for the three most recent taxation years; and
- c) every Notice of Assessment issued to you.

Please remember:

- a) to attach receipts for day care, medical expenses, extra-curricular activities & extraordinary expenses.
- b) If there are any changes in your personal circumstances or the personal circumstances of the children or changes in your financial status (that is, a change in source of income, or you start living with someone else) it is essential that you immediately provide the change(s) in writing to our office so that we always have current information on your file. Failure to keep this office informed of changes may cause delay on your file.

As a party to a family law proceeding, you are required to attend a parenting education program under the terms of section 44.1(3) of The Queen's Bench Act, 1998, as amended. These sessions are conducted regularly in Saskatoon, both on weekday evenings and on Saturdays. Some of the topics covered are "Options for Resolving Disputes;" "Stages of Separation and Divorce;" "Children's Reactions to Separation and Divorce" and "Parenting after Separation/Divorce." It is compulsory that you attend this program. Your matter cannot proceed to court until we have received a Certification of Completion for you. The education program is free of charge. To register or obtain information about the Parent Education Program, please call Family Law Support Services at 1-877-964-5501 or 964-4401.

KEEPING A DIARY:

To show a court factual evidence regarding your case, it is very important that you keep a diary of events. You may find the following helpful in keeping track of your personal situation regarding matters such as custody, access and maintenance.

- a) begin keeping an accurate diary today;
- b) write in your diary daily;
- c) if nothing noteworthy happens in the day, simply state that;
- d) if something does happen that may affect your case, make detailed notes about it;
- e) remember your diary may be needed as evidence in court and should be written in text that is not offensive;
- f) do not use foul language unless you are quoting what the other party said; and
- g) do not resort to name calling in your diary.
